Summary of reasons for classification:

The Blu-ray disc entitled Wanted is classified as:
 Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

It contains a feature originally examined as a 35mm film by the Office of Film and Literature Classification (OFLC No. 801347 registered 16 July 2008). This film was classified "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years", with the descriptive note "Contains violence and offensive language".

The extra components on the Blu-ray disc are made up of alternate and extended scenes, several documentaries, cast and crew interviews, a BD-Live option, My Scenes function and parts of the original graphic novel in motion form. There is a U-Control function which allows the viewer to access extra components through a pop-up menu and window that screens at the same time as the feature.

These extra components deal with matters of sex, crime and highly offensive language in a similar manner to those in the original film, and do not require the Blu-ray disc to be given a different classification to the previously classified film version.
